LUKE 16:10

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

©LPi

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 16:10-13

Before I was a priest, I was a lazy worker for a retail Apple store. Hearing a rumor that my boss was going to fire me, I secretly sold iPhones for half-price, gave away dozens of free iPads, and donated several brand-new laptops to managers in other stores in the mall. After a week, my boss called me into his office. He knew what I was up to. He said I had cost the store thousands of dollars. "Really great work, John," he said. "I am going to recommend you to be my assistant manager and double your pay." I was amazed.

And so are you. Which is understandable because it never happened. How could it? My tall tale is a retelling of Jesus' brow-furrowing parable we hear this week. A lazy, dishonest steward defrauds his boss and then the "master commended the dishonest servant for acting prudently" (Luke 16:8). What is the Lord saying to us?

Most of us treat our spiritual lives like a lazy teenager at an Apple store. We really don't care. We go through the motions. Then, if we are lucky, something happens that shakes us to spiritual action; to employ whatever time, money, and resources we have to build around us a strong network of love. Every saint did that. Our Lord is so good he wants us to use his stuff to forgive debts and to bless others. He wants us to ensure our future. So do it! — Father John Muir ©LPi

St. Vincent Pallotti School Update

Grandfriends' Day

On Wednesday, September 10, we welcomed our 'Grandfriends' to St. Vincent Pallotti for Grandfriends Day. Grandfriends' Day is a day to celebrate the special bond between our students and grandparents, and also the special friends who support them. We began the day with Mass and then invited our guests to join us at school for activities and classroom visits.

After touring the school, 'Grandfriends' were invited to share a special meal with the students and were able to do a little shopping at the Scholastic Book Fair. This day was a joyful reminder of the love and faith that connect generations in our school community.

Playground Blessing

On Friday, September 12, we held a blessing for our new playground! After much planning and support from our parish and school community, the students now have a safe and fun space to play and grow together. Please join us in thanking God for this amazing gift to our children and in praying that it will be a place of joy, friendship, and laughter for many years to come!

From The Earth Ministry:

Recycling Lithium-Ion Batteries

The rise in devices using Lithium-Ion ("LI") batteries is dramatic. Virtually everything RECHARGEABLE uses LI technology. LI batteries are banned from landfills in Wisconsin (exception, small "button type" LI batteries). Where to recycle them becomes a challenge, and there are currently relatively few locations, some of which charge a fee. Others can be "picky" in what they take – for example, Home Depot takes only rechargeable power tool batteries. If you have LI batteries for disposal, check the types taken and locations at www.WisconsinRecyclingDirectory.com or wisconsincommunitiesrecyclor.org

The demand for the scarce metals used in LI batteries is soaring. The impetus to create a US supply chain for the rare metals that are LI components is a growing national priority (along with semi-conductors / chips). Because mining for these metals is not an environmentally-friendly process, many consider recycling a better choice. The technology for reclaiming the precious metals in spent LI batteries, particularly larger ones like those in EV's, is improving dramatically. Scientists from The Worcester Polytechnic Institute near Boston recently announced a method whereby up to 92% of the metals in EV batteries can be reclaimed via a sustainable recovery process that involves minimal environmental impact. Innovation like this is has spawned an emerging industrial recycling community. One member of the community is Redwood Materials in Carson City, NV. The company has over 300 employees and has supply contracts with Tesla, Ford and Panasonic.

Thank you to everyone who attended our JOY (Just Older Youth) Ministry meeting last week. Our next meeting will be on Thursday, October 16 at 11:00AM at St. Therese Parish. Save the date!

Catechesis Corner

- Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) follows the readings for the Sunday with an emphasis on the Gospel and uses simpler language and activities to help children connect to and understand the message. Children ages three through 10 are invited to participate in CLOW each month. They leave Mass with a catechist (parents are welcome to join) just before the readings and return at the offertory to participate in the Liturgy of the Eucharist. All are welcome to join!
- CLOW is typically offered at both parishes on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. It will resume at St. Vincent Pallotti in October.

Standing Committee Monthly Reports

Prayer & Worship Committee

The Prayer and Worship Committee is back in full swing after the summer break.

- The fall opened with a blessing for all students and adults working with school children.
- The main focus of our meeting was on the preparation for the feast of St. Therese. There will be a Mass at St. Therese at 10:00AM on October 5 followed by a luncheon. Raffle baskets, a silent auction and a 50/50 raffle will be part of the festivities.
- We are also looking forward to a possible trip to Holy Hill in November to venerate the relics of St. Therese on the 100th anniversary of her canonization.
- Other dates to note: The annual Pet Blessing will take place at St. Vincent Pallotti – West on October 4 at 2:00PM and the Ecumenical Thanksgiving service on November 26 at Nativity Lutheran.

Fourth Sunday Formation

Our next Fourth Sunday Formation sessions will take place on September 27 and 28 after all Masses at both parishes. The topic is How Doctrine Becomes Dogma based in Acts 15. A handout will be provided. Please plan to join us and bring a friend!

Devotions, Explained!

The Jesus Prayer

The Jesus Prayer is a short invocation of mercy in the name of Jesus: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner."

The exact origins of the prayer are unclear, though it is often attributed to the tradition of Eastern Christianity, possibly via the Desert Fathers (early Christian ascetics who dwelled in Egypt). The prayer has been important to the traditions of both the Eastern Orthodox and the Eastern Catholic faithful. The text echoes the words of the publican in the parable from Luke 18:9-14, whose humble manner of prayer was praised by Jesus. Its short form and simple wording make it ideal for meditative prayer.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in paragraph 2667, highlights the Jesus Prayer, saying that "by it the heart is opened to human wretchedness and the Savior's mercy." ©LPi

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

The word “catechesis” means “to echo.” Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say “thank you” to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child’s life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART. This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.
