30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 18:9-14

Every now and then readers of these reflections write letters in which they object to something. Years ago, this Gospel of Luke 18 prompted such an email. A man wrote to me: “I find it deeply offensive that you suggest we are still sinners once we are God’s sons and daughters.” His objection stirred in me a profound awareness of the paradox at the heart of our faith. Are we sinners or beloved children of God?

In this Gospel (Luke 18:9-14), a tax collector appears as one who has missed the mark. His sins have isolated him. His breast-beating is not an act of self-flagellation for pride’s sake but a heartfelt admission of his failure and unworthiness. Remarkably, Jesus honors the candid humility of the parable’s penitent. Why? Because we are always in need of mercy, always. But even more, perhaps because on the cross, Jesus will fully embrace a similar place of humiliation and rejection. He will enter into the most shameful, offensive place of the sinner so that we might “go home justified.”

There is a sacred tension in admitting that we are sinners and yet have profound hope. We are beloved sons and daughters of God, growing precisely through our honest acceptance of failure. When we cry, “Have mercy on us,” during Mass or when we repeat the “Jesus Prayer” in quiet moments, or in the confessional, we embrace our imperfections as fertile ground for divine grace. In doing so, we follow Christ’s example — finding true exaltation in the humble acknowledgment of our human frailty. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Catechesis Program News: Discovering the Cornerstone of Our Faith
The third grade students recently had a lesson on Jesus being the “cornerstone” of our faith. In this activity, the students had to work together to use the white brick cornerstone in the bottom corner while building a structure. Students read 1Peter 2:4-10 in the Bible and discussed that Jesus being our cornerstone will help us be a priestly people. Each student received a stone with their name and Jesus as a reminder.

From The Earth Ministry:

Our Ministry has long advocated practicing sustainability by purchasing organic, locally-grown fruits and vegetables. In what for many families is an annual fall tradition, they visit a local orchard to pick apples.

At the lobby entrance to St. Therese there is an apple tree that was planted years ago by Kathy Hubrich, long-time parishioner, Parish Council member and Trustee. Kathy passed away in May of this year. With her memory in mind, many of us have enjoyed a fine harvest of apples from “Kathy’s Tree.”

Especially fitting was a recent picking excursion by Kathy’s daughter, Jessica Zivnuska and her four beautiful children, Vada (10), Zeke (9), Avry (5), and Koen (2).

Jessica commented “It was just what our hearts needed. We definitely felt her there with us.”

Fourth Sunday Formation

Our next Fourth Sunday Formation sessions will take place virtually on November 22/23 due to the town hall meetings that weekend. Watch your email for more information and the link that weekend!

All Saints Day

All Saints Day is Saturday, November 1. Remember the Saints...your patron Saint and all the many holy men and women that have been role models for us in life. Each of us is called to be a saint...to live the Gospel and bring Jesus, our Savior into this world through our example.

Did you know...that Halloween and All Saints’ Day are closely connected? In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints’ Day. It was originally called All Hallow’s Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallow’s Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and tricks?

All Saints’ Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2 is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as “dark” spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today’s celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. ©LPi

Devotions, Explained!

The Guardian Angel Prayer

The Guardian Angel Prayer, also known as the Angel of God Prayer, invokes the protection of one's guardian angel. Often one of the first prayers taught to children, it consists of two rhyming couplets: "Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide."

The exact authorship of this prayer is unknown. Scholars previously attributed it to St. Anselm of Canterbury, though many now believe a version composed by Reginald of Canterbury in his "Life of Malchus" serves as the prayer's inspiration.

Guardian Angels are referred to in Scripture in the Book of Daniel (Dan. 12:1), the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 18:10) and the Psalms (91:10-13). "From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 336).

The Parish Pastoral Council and the standing committees are discussing the next steps in our collaboration. How will our communities move together into the future? To answer this question, we need your thoughts and input.

The meetings will have a brief presentation, followed by time for questions, and will last no more than an hour. In order to keep to this timeline, we are asking parishioners to submit their questions and concerns ahead of time so they can be addressed in advance or during the presentation. Use the form below and put it in the collection basket at either parish, mail it to/drop it off at either parish office, or use the Google form that is linked on either parish website. We hope many of you will participate.

We know these conversations can stir up both hope and concern, because our parishes are not just organizations; they are communities of prayer, memory, and connection. That is why it is so important to move forward carefully, prayerfully, and with your voices at the center of discernment. If you have any questions, reach out to the Parish Pastoral Council.

Submit Your Questions and Concerns Ahead of the Town Hall Meeting

Please fill out and return in the collection basket or to either Parish Office by November 10.
