We are St. Therese Catholic Church, a community of believers, who walk together by faith in Christ Jesus, and minister in the Little Way of St. Therese, as we strive hand-in-hand to live as God's people.

A Community of disciples, nourished by the Eucharist, caring for each other and reaching out to others.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

John 6:51-58

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, “Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?” Later, another asked, “Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?” Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today’s Gospel, Jesus declares: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (John 6:55) His words scandalized His listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus’ words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it “bread” or “wine.” Nor do we say, “a piece of Jesus” or even “Jesus.” We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us — not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Human Concerns Update

Rose Sale Results

Thank you to those who purchased and/or donated funds for the annual Mother’s Day rose sale benefiting Wisconsin Right for Life. We collected approximately $658.00 despite running out of roses due to a delivery error. I also want to thank all those that showed up before and after Mass to set up and sell roses.

Additionally, Elyse and Paul Lorenz from St Jude helped separate 1400 roses for distribution to seven parishes including St. Therese, St. Vincent Pallotti, and St. Jude. Paul also helped get us an additional 100 roses for a reasonable cost from Kennicott.

The missing roses showed up the following Monday. They are currently drying and our craft group will turn them into sachets, potpourri and other craft items that will be sold later in the year for Wisconsin Right for Life.

Blood Drive Results

Thank you to those who donated blood on May 16. We collected 16 units of blood that can help up to 48 local patients. Thank you also to all those who helped with the food as well as setup and clean-up.

Our next drive is October 17 from 8:00am to Noon. Please mark your calendars.

Please Remember in Your Prayers:

The family and friends of †Fr. Norman Oswald. His funeral will be held at St. Therese Parish:

- Vigil Service: Monday, June 15 from 6:00pm to 8:00pm
- Visitation: Tuesday, June 16 at 9:00am
- Mass of Christian Burial: Tuesday, June 16 at 10:00am

“Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.”

St. Therese Sharing Weekend is Next Weekend: June 14

The Sharing weekend recipient for June is Meta House. Meta House is a Milwaukee-based nonprofit dedicated to ending the generational cycle of addiction by healing women and strengthening families. For more than 60 years, Meta House has provided comprehensive substance use and co-occurring mental health treatment, child and family therapy, and supportive services that empower women to rebuild their lives in recovery.

Meta House is amidst a transformational expansion project that will double residential treatment capacity and create a centralized campus designed to expand access to family-centered care. This investment will allow more women, children, and families to heal together in a safe and supportive environment rooted in dignity, hope, and long-term recovery.

Donations can be made at Mass, mailed to the Parish Office or by using the QR code to donate online. If you are writing a check, please make it out to Meta House. We ask that all donations are given by Sunday, June 14. Thank you for your generosity.

Connecting to Christ and His Creation

Hebrews 11:13-16 - The faithful acknowledged they were strangers and pilgrims on earth, seeking a heavenly homeland

From the Earth Ministry: The Catholic Ecology Center (CEC) Is Now An Official Pilgrimage Site

We have in previous years promoted the Catholic Ecology Center as a great day trip for you and your kids or grandkids during their summer vacation. It's open year around from dawn to dusk at W1468 County Road NN, Neosho, WI, 12 miles West of Holy Hill. The CEC is located on a 60-acre segment of a 225-acre preserve of diverse habitats.

Now more than ever, a visit to the CEC is especially faithful and rewarding. That's because Archbishop Grob has just designated the Catholic Ecology Center an Official Pilgrimage Site for the 2026 Jubilee Year of St Francis of Assisi, as proclaimed by Pope Leo, on the 800th anniversary of St Francis' death.

The mission of the Catholic Ecology Center is to deepen faith and foster a stewardship ethic through hands-on encounters with the natural world. This is done through educational programming, stewardship projects, retreats, recreational outings and partnerships with schools and parishes. God's Work

STEWARDSHIP

TIME

Our Hands

“Rejoice always, pray continuously, give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.”
- 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

We pray because our faith requires a response of our time in prayer. Whether our hands are folded, upraised, clasped, holding a prayer, hymnal, or someone, they are signs of prayer.

Using God's work of creating you and your time on earth can increase your Stewardship of Prayer Time. Our moments of tasks, feelings, sights, worries, confusion, enjoyment, and quiet become holy moments when we turn to God with thanks, praise, petition, forgiveness. God's work, the creation of moments, goes hand in hand with us. Acknowledge God in every moment.

How to Receive Holy Communion Properly

“The Eucharist is not ordinary bread, so we should never approach it casually.”

For Catholics, Holy Communion is not merely a symbol or ritual. The Church teaches that the Eucharist is truly the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 1374). That is why receiving Holy Communion is one of the most sacred moments in the life of a Catholic. Yet many people were never properly taught:

- * how to approach
- * how to receive
- * and how to prepare themselves spiritually

As a result, some receive casually, distractedly, or without understanding the reverence required. But Holy Communion deserves more than routine. It deserves awareness, preparation, and reverence. We are not merely receiving something, we are receiving Someone.

1. PREPARE YOUR HEART BEFORE MASS

Receiving Holy Communion properly begins long before the Communion line. A Catholic should come to Mass prayerfully and with a clean conscience. The Church teaches that anyone conscious of grave (mortal) sin should first receive the Sacrament of Confession before approaching Holy Communion (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 1385). The faithful are also expected to observe the Eucharistic fast, normally refraining from food and drink for at least one hour before Communion (cf. Code of Canon Law). Preparation matters because the Eucharist is sacred. The soul should be ready for the One it is about to receive.

2. APPROACH THE ALTAR WITH REVERENCE

When it is time for Communion, approach calmly and prayerfully. Avoid rushing, chatting, looking around unnecessarily, or treating the procession casually. The Communion procession is an act of worship, not merely movement. As you approach the minister, make a sign of reverence before receiving. In many places, this is done with a bow of the head (cf. General Instruction of the Roman Missal). Even the way we walk toward the Eucharist should reflect faith.

3. HOW TO RECEIVE THE HOST

The Church permits receiving Holy Communion either: on the tongue or in the hand (where approved by the bishops' conference). If receiving in the hand: place one hand over the other respectfully, receive the Host carefully and consume it immediately before moving away. If receiving on the tongue: open the mouth respectfully, extend the tongue slightly and remain still while the minister places the Host. Before receiving, the minister says: "The Body of Christ." The communicant responds clearly: "Amen." This "Amen" is not a routine response, it is a declaration of faith in the Real Presence of Christ.

4. RECEIVE WITH ATTENTION AND CARE

The Eucharist should never be handled carelessly. The faithful should ensure that no fragment of the Host is deliberately neglected or treated irreverently. One should also avoid walking away while still holding the Host. Holy Communion is not ordinary food. It is sacred. The Church teaches that Christ is fully present even in the smallest Eucharistic particle (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 1377). Reverence is not exaggeration, it is recognition.

5. AFTER RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

After receiving Communion, return prayerfully to your place. This is not the moment for distraction or conversation. It is a privileged time for thanksgiving, silence, and personal prayer. Many saints encouraged Catholics to speak to Jesus interiorly after Communion: thanking Him, offering intentions and seeking grace and strength. The One you prayed to, is now sacramentally present within you. Do not rush away from a sacred encounter.

6. COMMON MISTAKES PEOPLE SHOULD AVOID

Many abuses or mistakes happen not from malice, but from lack of formation. Some common things to avoid include: receiving without proper disposition, chewing gum during Communion, walking away without consuming the Host, treating the Eucharist casually and approaching without reverence. The goal is not fear, but awareness of the greatness of the sacrament.

IN SUMMARY: RECEIVE WITH FAITH AND REVERENCE

Holy Communion is one of the greatest gifts Christ gave His Church. To receive properly means: preparing the soul, approaching reverently, receiving attentively and responding with faith. The Eucharist is not ordinary. And when we truly understand Who we are receiving... our attitude changes. Do I receive Holy Communion with routine or with deep awareness of Christ's presence? "The way we receive the Eucharist reveals how deeply we believe in it."
