30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 22:34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Notes from Pallotti

A weekly look at life at St. Vincent Pallotti Catholic School

Spotlight: Cafeteria Carnival

Last week we celebrated National School Hot Lunch Day with a special carnival-themed lunch we called the Cafeteria Carnival. Students enjoyed a nacho bar along with circus cookies and cotton candy, and prizes were given out in a drawing. It was a fun and festive way to mark the day, and we are grateful to Ms. Laura, Ms. Chris, and everyone who helped make lunchtime a little extra special for our students.

Pasta Dinner: Volunteers Needed

Please be sure to see the insert in this week's bulletin for details about our upcoming Pasta Dinner on Saturday, November 21. This annual event is a wonderful way for our school and parish to come together, and we are looking for any volunteers we can find. If you have time or talent to share, we would be so grateful for your help.

Coming Up: Halloween Celebration

Next week, we will celebrate Halloween on Friday, October 30. Our students will travel to Pius XI High School to go trick-or-treating, and we will finish the day with a spooky Halloween-themed lunch in the gym. It promises to be a fun day for our students, and we will be sure to share the highlights with you.

St. Vincent Pallotti

Mass of Remembrance

Join us for a special Mass of Remembrance on Sunday, November 8 at 10:30AM at the West Church. All parishioners who have died within the past year will be remembered at this Mass. Family members will be invited to come forward and place a candle in the sanctuary as the name of your loved one is read aloud. The parish has a record of those whose funeral services took place at the East or West Church since last November. If a parishioner was buried from a place other than St. Vincent Pallotti, such as a nursing home or other church, please contact Heather in the Parish Office by November 2 to provide their information so your loved one may be included in this special service.

Book of Remembrance

Anticipating the month of November and the church's remembrance of our deceased loved ones, the parish's large Blue Book of Remembrance has been placed on the table in the back of church. (Not the usual red intention book). The parish intercessions on the weekend of November 7/8 will include a prayer for all those listed in the Blue Book. Please write the names of those who died and whom you wish us to pray for on that weekend.

St. Therese

An Evening of Remembrance

Our annual Evening of Remembrance will be at St. Therese Parish on Monday, November 2 at 7:00PM. Any interested parishioners (from either parish) who have lost a loved one during the past year are invited to participate. Please contact Heather in the Parish Office to register by October 26.

Wall of Remembrance

The Wall of Remembrance is our way at St. Therese of honoring the deceased during the month of November. Please email a photo of your loved one that has passed away to Heather in the Parish Office. You may also stop by during office hours with a printed photo. Heather will then put the photos on the eBoard in the back of the church. The photos will be shown before and after Mass. We will begin showing the photos on November 1.

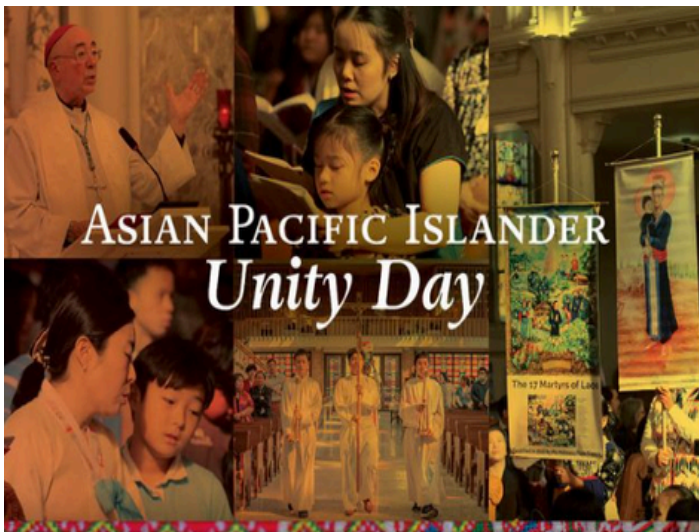

Book of the Dead

We invite you to place the names of your deceased loved ones in the Book of the Dead. It will be placed near the Holy Water font starting on November 1. Questions? Contact Heather in the Parish Office.

News From The St. Vincent de Paul Conference

During the last twelve months, from October 1, 2025 to September 30, 2026, the St. Jude, St. Therese, St. Vincent Pallotti Conference served 60 families in our neighborhood. That would not have been possible without your financial support. Your generosity has allowed our conference to pay rent for eighteen families facing eviction; three families with their mortgage payment; ten families with beds; three families with their utility bill to avoid disconnection; eight families with appliances; eleven families with clothing; six families with food; two families with their car payment enabling them to continue working and twenty-four families with furniture and household items. Many families have multiple needs. All of the families we meet are very appreciative of the help they receive and cannot believe there are people (complete strangers) willing to help them. Thank you for supporting our mission of helping our neighbors in need. And thank you in advance for your continued generosity and may God bless you.

*"The old has passed away; behold,
the new has come!" 2 Corinthians 5:17*

From the Earth Ministry:

Reducing Food Waste; Eco-conscious Costumes & Treats

Halloween can produce a lot of waste: used jack-o'-lanterns, candy wrappers, cheap costumes, and shoddy decorations. While it's hard to achieve a completely zero-waste Halloween, it's amazing how close you can get. When carving pumpkins, put on the brakes before throwing out the insides. The EPA says we generate 41 million tons of food waste a year, and it is consistently the largest component found by the DNR in sampling Wisconsin landfills. Track down some recipes for the pumpkin flesh, or try roasting the seeds for a tasty snack. After Halloween, composting jack-o'-lanterns is the most eco-friendly disposal method.

For costumes, "shop" in your home's closets or go to St. Vincent DePaul or Goodwill and put together something creative from what you find. A unique outerwear item like a trench coat can transform you into a spy, a leather jacket can add to a 50's rock and roll look, or a fishing vest can make you a safari guide or zookeeper. Keep your costume creations for future years or return them to their places of origin for re-use by others.

For treats as an alternative to candy in throw-away wrappers, you could give out fresh fruit like oranges decorated as jack-o'-lanterns, or apples. Some folks make and add caramel apples to their array of treat offerings, wrapping them in biodegradable paper. Also, you can hand out small gifts (e.g., Halloween-themed pencils, erasers, mini coloring books, etc.) or give out quarters or other coins in place of wrapped candy.

For more information on eco-friendly Halloween alternatives, go to <https://zerowastememoirs.com/eco-friendly-halloween/>

LOVE—
Until the Last Breath

Our lives are gifts from God.

Assisted suicide, which denies the dignity of human life, is gaining influence in our world. Throughout October, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee is providing opportunities to learn more about this issue, including presentations at parishes.

Go to www.archmil.org/love-until-the-last-breath for details.

ARCHDIOCESE of MILWAUKEE

All Saints Day is Sunday, November 1. Remember the Saints...your patron Saint and all the many holy men and women that have been role models for us in life. Each of us is called to be a saint...to live the Gospel and bring Jesus, our Savior, into this world through our example.

Did you know...that Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected? In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallow's Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and tricks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2 is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. ©LPi

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2 each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are! ©LPi
